

In the context of the “Today for everyone” campaign, which brings together 42 Shopping Centers of Ecuador aiming to provide protective equipment for health personnel still working against COVID-19 pandemic; La Rotonda Shopping Center donated 1000 surgical gowns to Luis Vernaza Hospital.

San Marino Shopping Center as well donated to Roberto Gilbert Hospital a total of 1000 surgical gowns and 2000 KN95 masks. Estela Bernal, Administrator, said it was a first approach for future donations to JBG, and invited the public to continue getting together so to help the personnel who work in hospitals.

All participants of this campaign have located, in their facilities, containers as donations' receptors so that the public can contribute.
