

Panteón Metropolitano for a fifth year in a row joined the Day in the Life Celebration initiative that the Latin-American Cemetery and Funeral Services Association ALPAR simultaneously commemorate on the third Sunday in the month of August in different countries throughout the five continents to celebrate the life of those we loved and are no longer with us as well as the life of those who are still with us and our own life.

“I miss you”, “I will always love you”, “We will meet again” were some of the messages left by those in assistance on the Wall located at the entrance to the Metropolitan Pantheon where this past August 20th the World United for Life Day and its fifth anniversary at the Community’s service were commemorated.

The ceremony was underlined by the Colegio Republica de Francia Symphonic Orchestra conducted by Manuel Mendoza and which entertained those in assistance with a variety of musical genres, which brightened the souls of those present.
